

Our Strategy 2026 - 2029

London Network of Nurses and Midwives Homelessness Group (LNNM)

About LNNM

The LNNM is a charity supporting professionals working in inclusion health. We promote best practice and work to develop inclusion health as a distinct, recognised speciality.

Our network includes nurses, midwives, health visitors, allied health professionals, support workers, peer advocates, students and others interested in health and homelessness.

Our Aim

To improve the quality of healthcare for people experiencing homelessness by connecting and supporting professionals, sharing best practice, providing high quality training, raising awareness of health inequalities, and advocating for changes in policy and practice.

Our Priorities 2026 - 2029

1

Grow the network

- Expand our reach across London boroughs and sectors
- Promote the value of LNNM
- Reach professionals not yet connected
- Build stronger partnerships

2

Learning & Development

- Develop high quality resources
- Offer regular training & networking opportunities
- Fund training places
- Showcase good practice & innovation

3

Influence policy

- Create opportunities for members to shape responses
- Share insights with funders and policy makers
- Advocate against cuts and inequitable policies

4

Communication & Engagement

- Refresh our website
- Re-introduce regular mailings & newsletters
- Develop a more active social media presence
- Use feedback and data to improve engagement

5

A sustainable organisation

- Align annual workplans and budgets to priorities
- Strengthen trustee skills & governance
- Diversify income streams
- Review & update operating systems

Outcomes

A growing, diverse London-wide network

Increased member engagement

Members' voices informing policy & practice

High levels of member satisfaction

A stronger, sustainable organisation

Visit our website